Books

- The Gender Studies Subject Specialist Librarian, Ruth Wallach, who is also Architecture and Fine Arts Librarian (rwallach@usc.edu), has created a Research Guide, "Gender Studies" – it is on the library web here: <http://libguides.usc.edu/gender>.
- Relevant Library of Congress Subject Headings (used for subject tracings in the HOMER online library catalog) include: "Women in science" "Women in technology" "Women engineers"

Recent books of possible WiSE interest are listed below, with the newest first.

- Brief records with call number, title, author, library.
- Note that most broad and historical treatments of science are in the Doheny Memorial Library.
- Congressional hearings on women and science are generally in the documents classification number beginning Y 4.C 73/7. Many print copies are in the VKC Library; however, more may be at Grand Depository Library offsite. Those can be requested through the HOMER catalog and can often be found online from the Thomas government Web site: <http://thomas.loc.gov/>.
