USC Women in Science and Engineering
October 2013
volume 5, issue 38

www.usc.edu/wise
www.facebook.com/USCWISE
wiseprog@usc.edu
(213) 740-0996

Upcoming Events

WiSE Undergraduate Workshop on Graduate School
Tuesday, October 22  9 am – 10 am
Wednesday, October 23  8:30 am -9:30 am
DRB 232
Rsvp to: wiseuscrsvp@gmail.com

WiSE Undergraduate Workshop on CVs and Resumes
Monday, October 28  2 pm – 3 pm
Tuesday, October 29  9:30 am – 10:30 am
DRB 232
Rsvp to: wiseuscrsvp@gmail.com

UCLA Hosted Symposium on Women in Science and Engineering
Tuesday, November 5, 9:00 – 11:00 am
UCLA Faculty Center
Register, here.

Women in Science Networking Lunch
Tuesday, November 5 from 12-1:30 pm
San Diego Town and Country Convention Center
More information, here.
Upcoming WiSE Deadlines

WiSE Undergraduate Research Experience
Applications for the Spring 2014 semester are due December 1.
More information, here.

Congratulations to …

Assistant Professor Malancha Gupta (Chemical Engineering and Materials Sciences) on her appointment as the Jack Munushian Early Career Chair!

Assistant Professor Andrea Armani (Chemical Engineering and Materials Sciences) on being named one of Popular Science’s “Brilliant 10.”

Professor Susan Forsburg (Biological Sciences) on being elected a fellow of the California Academy of Sciences!

Assistant Professor Nora Ayanian (Computer Science) on being selected as IEEE's AI 10 to watch, IEEE Intelligent Systems' list of 10 young stars in the field of AI.

Assistant Professor Yan Liu (Computer Science) on receiving a 2013 Okawa Foundation Research Grant (this prize honors top researchers working the fields of information and telecommunications).

Fellowships/Scholarships

The Microsoft Research Graduate Women’s Scholarship
Applications due: Wednesday, October 16, 2013 A one-year scholarship program for outstanding women graduate student and is designed to help increase the number of women pursuing a PhD. More information, here.

A one-year scholarship program for outstanding women graduate student is designed to help increase the number of women pursuing a PhD.

Congratulations! WiSE Undergraduate Research Fellows

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Jennifer Yee</th>
<th>Sophie Xu</th>
<th>Yunying Tu</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Collette Speer</td>
<td>Jennifer Solorzano</td>
<td>Airi Ryu</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Abeer Ramzy</td>
<td>Sulekha Ramaya</td>
<td>Janice Park</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Demi Nguyen</td>
<td>Moriah Mulroe</td>
<td>Chang Liu</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Catherine Ki</td>
<td>Erica Arnold</td>
<td>Tiffany Fan</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Job Opportunities

The National Center for Atmospheric Research (NCAR) Earth Observing Laboratory (EOL) seeks a full-time Electrical Engineer (Engineer II) with Radio Frequency (RF) Experience to join a technical team of engineers, scientists, and technicians in support of meteorological research. wiseprog@usc.edu for more information.

ARUP is holding an information session for interested job seekers on Tuesday, October 15 5:30 pm, location SGM 101. To be considered for an interview, apply online at: www.goarup.com

Faculty in the News

- Professor Andrea Armani was named one of Popular Science’s “Brilliant 10.” More information, here.

- Get to know Viterbi Professor Veronica Eliasson (Aerospace and Mechanical Engineering)!
  VIDEO

- Please visit Professor Anna Krylov’s (Chemistry) website which lists women working in theoretical/computational Chemistry

Articles of Interest

- “Beyond CVs and Impact Factors: An Employer’s Manifesto”

- “Darwin Wasn’t A Complete Chauvinist After All”

- “Engineering a Better Future for Girls”

- “The Brogographer Effect: Women Are a Small (and Shrinking) Share of Computer Workers”

- “How Female Professionals Can Mentor the Next Generation”

- “How to Guide Young Women to Excel in Math, Science”

- “Stemming the Tide”

- “When Leaning In Doesn’t Pay Off”

- “Women and the STEM Sciences: When Trying Hard Isn’t Natural”
· “3 Projects That Aim to Unleash Girls’ Inner Geeks”

· “5 Rewarding Behaviors For Women Breaking Into Tech”

· “More Women Pick Computer Science if Media Nix Outdated Nerd Stereotype”

· “The Awesomest 7 Year Postdoc or How I Learned to Stop Worrying and Love”

· “Why Are There Still So Few Women in Science?”